John,

Just received your voice mail from last week. My wife and I were on vacation in Puerto Vallarta and do to National security reasons my EPA phone had to stay in airplane mode so I could only receive emails. Feel free to call today (Sunday) or anytime this week. I look forward to talking with you.

Best regards,

Mike,

I will double up on Rory's thank you and express my appreciation for your time today. Honeywell will continue to work with your staff to try to reach consensus and resolution but I do appreciate the opportunity to reach out to you, if necessary.

May you also have a relaxing and satisfying Holiday season!

John
